

Amelia Miazad, Afghanistan Project Fellow

Amelia Miazad graduated from Boalt Hall in 2002. She is currently an attorney at Hanson Bridgett LLP in San Francisco and practices in the Public Agency and Insurance Recovery Practice groups. In addition to practicing law, Miazad, who was born in Afghanistan, is active in legal, development, and policy issues relating to Afghanistan. She volunteers for various non-profits that are committed to development in Afghanistan. At the Miller Institute, Miazad will work on projects relating to establishing the rule of law, mitigating corruption, and supporting sustainable development in Afghanistan.
