

The Northern District of California Court Historical Society
The Northern District of California Practice Program and
The Institute for Legal Research, UC Berkeley present

IF LINCOLN HAD LIVED?

What if John Wilkes Booth's assassination attempt had failed, and Lincoln had lived?

- How might a second Lincoln term have affected the Reconstruction of the Union, the status of African Americans, and race relations today?
- How would we still have the Fourteenth Amendment that shapes so much of our constitutional adjudication?
- Might the Thirteenth Amendment have greater present-day relevance?

OCTOBER 21, 2009, 5:00-6:00 PM

(1.0 hour of MCLE credit)

450 Golden Gate Avenue, 19th floor
San Francisco, California

Speakers

JUDGE WILLIAM ALSUP

U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California

PROFESSOR EMERITUS MICHAEL LES BENEDICT

Ohio State University

The program is free, but space is limited.

To RSVP, send an email with the names and number of people attending to HistoricalSociety@cand.uscourts.gov.

For any questions, please call 415-522-4620 or email HistoricalSociety@cand.uscourts.gov.
The Northern District of California Practice Program is a State Bar of California Approved Provider.

<http://www.law.berkeley.edu/1952.htm>