WELCOME

FROM THE BCLT EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Established in 1995, the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology (BCLT) is the focal point at Berkeley Law for teaching, research, convening, and student activities on issues at the intersection of law and technology.

Our faculty directors work hard each year to ensure that the law and technology curriculum is broad, deep, and current. At the same time, your professors produce groundbreaking scholarship that frames and advances the global debate on tech policy. After you get past your first semester, you might consider working for one of the faculty as a research assistant. Equally noteworthy are the alumni, practicing attorneys, policymakers, and scholars from other schools that we bring to Boalt to participate in our luncheon talks, conferences and other events. Take time from coursework to expose yourself to these broader perspectives.

BCLT conducts a series of career events during the year, plus a summer reception for those staying in the Bay Area. Also, we support a wide range of student groups, which allow you to develop friendships and pursue interests extending beyond the classroom

I urge you to take advantage of these and the other BCLT resources during the next three years. To learn about all our events and opportunities, sign up for our weekly eNews by giving us your email address on the sign-up sheets at any of our events, or email Claire Trias at ctrias@law.berkeley.edu. Claire is our Assistant Director for Program Development & Student Engagement.

If you have any questions, please contact Claire or me or our Associate Director, Louise Lee. Our commitment is to provide you with a rich and diverse educational experience, to prepare you for life-long careers in technology law.

Jim Dempsey

Jim Dempsey is the Executive Director of the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology. A leading expert on privacy, Dempsey has experience as a judicial law clerk, a law firm attorney, a Capitol Hill staffer, a non-profit leader, and a Presidential appointee. Before joining BCLT, Jim spent 18 years with the Center for Democracy & Technology, serving as its executive director from 2003 to 2005 before moving to California to open CDT West. Dempsey led CDT's Global Internet Policy Initiative, which worked with government officials, industry, and human rights organizations on Internet policy issues in developing and transitional countries, and he founded Digital Due Process, a diverse coalition working to update the Electronic Communications Privacy Act. In 2012, he was confirmed by the U.S. Senate and appointed by the President as a part-time member of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board, an independent agency within the executive branch charged with advisory and oversight roles regarding the nation's counterterrorism programs.

CURRICULUM

Berkeley Law offers a remarkably rich curriculum on technology issues: over 20 courses a year, ranging from the intellectual property survey class to the intensive learning experience provided by the Samuelson Law, Technology & Public Policy Clinic to advanced courses and seminars on patent prosecution, antitrust, privacy, cybercrime, biotech, telecoms, the law affecting the entertainment industry—even a course on wine law.

Annually, the faculty directors reassess the curriculum to ensure that it covers emerging topics that our students will encounter in practice. In 2015-16, Berkeley added two new technology law courses: Patent Litigation II, focused on proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, and the Berkeley IP Lab, with both practicum and classroom components, pairing Berkeley Law students with startups, supervised by practicing lawyers from leading firms in the Bay Area.

In 2016-17, we are offering three new courses:

Privacy Litigation

Leading practitioners, one from the plaintiff side and one from the defense, will co-teach this course, which will take students through the trajectory of a privacy class action lawsuit, from compliant drafting to settlement negotiations.

Technology for Lawyers

A one-credit course explaining foundational technologies that every lawyer should understand.

Negotiating Hollywood Contracts

Linda Lichter, who has negotiated deals for Hollywood's most successful filmmakers, will introduce Berkeley students to the legal and business issues surrounding the negotiation of entertainment agreements.

LAW & TECHNOLOGY CERTIFICATE

The Law & Technology Certificate recognizes a student's sustained commitment to technology law through successful completion of a prescribed number of tech-related courses plus participation in a student-led activity. The curricular requirements emphasize depth and breadth while affording students flexibility in adapting their course of study to a range of career paths in this growing field.

Refer to p. 13 for complete requirements.

JENNIFER M.
URBAN

Jennifer Urban is Clinical Professor of Law and director of the Samuelson Law, Technology & Public Policy Clinic. BERC@BOALT

BERC@Boalt is the law school branch of the Berkeley Energy & Resources Collaborative, a student-led organization that aims to connect and educate the UC Berkeley energy and resources community. BERC@Boalt helps to inform law students about current legal practice and advances in the fields of energy, climate and clean technologies. It does this through the development of curriculum, the continuing expansion of an alumni and professional network, the promotion of events and discussions centered on green issues, and the creation of a Career Guide for Energy, Climate and CleanTech Law.

BERKELEY TECHNOLOGY LAW JOURNAL

The Berkeley Technology Law Journal (BTLJ) is a student-run publication that covers emerging issues in the areas of intellectual property, privacy and cyberlaw. In 2016, Washington & Lee Law School Library ranked BTLJ as #1 among specialized journals in both the IP and the Science, Technology and Computing categories. Since 1986, BTLJ has kept judges, policymakers, practitioners, and the academic community abreast of the dynamic field of technology law. The Journal's membership of approximately 150 students publishes three issues of scholarly work each year, plus the Annual Review of Law and Technology. The Annual Review is a distinctive issue of the Journal published in collaboration with BCLT and is comprised entirely of student-written pieces discussing the most important IP and technology law developments. Each year, BTLJ co-hosts the Annual BCLT/BTLJ Symposium. For each conference, BTLJ publishes a symposium issue, featuring articles by presenters at the conference. BTLJ also co-sponsors BCLT's twice weekly law and technology speakers series.

boalt.org is Berkeley Law's public interest and technology group. It meets regularly to network, share resources and ideas, build community, and discuss trends in law and technology. It works with the Boalt community and with other campus initiatives to foster collaboration and improve legal innovation, design, and technology.

CONSUMER ADVOCACY & PROTECTION SOCIETY

The Consumer Advocacy and Protection Society (CAPS) is dedicated to promoting consumer protection law at Berkeley. Its mission is to connect students interested in consumer protection issues, organize and host consumer-related events, network with the greater consumer law community, and promote the availability of courses and clinical opportunities related to consumer protection law. Its listserv delivers information about consumer protection jobs and major developments in consumer law.

STUDENT GROUPS

BOALT HEALTHCARE & BIOTECH LAW SOCIETY

Members of the Boalt Healthcare and Biotech Law Society (BHBSL) examine and analyze the intersection between law, society, policy, and science. Their mission is to explore emerging health/biotech issues and to stimulate the intellectual and professional development of Boalt students interested in these subjects. They do this by organizing networking events with practitioners, promoting health and biotech courses at the law school, and increasing interaction between the law school and other healthcare and biotech-related institutions at UC Berkeley and beyond.

PATENT LAW SOCIETY

The Patent Law Society (PLS) provides a forum for students interested in practicing patent law to discuss and debate the latest developments in this specialty and to interact, network and exchange ideas with others interested in the field. The group invites patent law practitioners to the school to share their experiences with students.

SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT LAW SOCIETY

The mission of the Sports and Entertainment Law Society (SELS) is to educate the Berkeley Law community about legal opportunities and issues in the entertainment and sports industries. SELS creates opportunities for students to network with each other and with legal professionals in these industries. During the academic year, SELS sponsors guest lectures and social events.

UNIVERSITIES ALLIED FOR ESSENTIAL MEDICINES (UAEM)

Universities Allied for Essential Medicines (UAEM) links members of universities in the U.S., the U.K. and Canada who are concerned about patient access to medicines in poor countries. Its mission is to promote access to medicines and medical innovations in low and middle-income countries by changing norms and practices around academic patenting and licensing; to ensure that university medical research meets the needs of people worldwide; and to empower students to respond to the access and innovation crisis.

PARTNERSHIPS

BCLT has expanded its presence within and beyond the law school, developing relationships locally, nationally, and internationally. BCLT works closely with other programs at the law school, including the Samuelson Law, Technology & Public Policy Clinic and the Berkeley Center for Law, Business, and the Economy. BCLT is also involved in cross-disciplinary programs with other schools and departments on the UC Berkeley campus.

SAMUELSON LAW, TECHNOLOGY & PUBLIC POLICY CLINIC

Founded in 2001, the Samuelson Law, Technology and Public Policy Clinic (SLTPPC) provided the first opportunity in legal academia for students to represent public interest clients in key debates and litigation at the intersection of law and technology. Today, it is the leader in a growing movement of clinics that give law students hands-on training in advocacy in the areas of IP, technology, and civil liberties.

BERKELEY CENTER FOR LAW, BUSINESS, AND THE ECONOMY

The Berkeley Center for Law, Business and the Economy (BCLBE) is Berkeley Law's hub for rigorous, relevant, empirically based research and education on the interrelationships of law, business, and the economy. BCLBE's areas of focus include technology innovation and commercialization and financing in the tech sector. BCLT and BCLBE collaborate on events and programs exploring the continuum of legal issues crucial to innovation and the start-up ecosystem.
