

2011- 2012 James Patterson McBaine Honors Moot Court Competition

SIDE PREFERENCE SHEET

Name: _____

Date: _____

E-Mail Address: _____

[Please place an X at the appropriate category]

___ I would prefer to represent the Petitioner

___ I would prefer to represent the Respondent

___ I have no preference

Please Note: Because we need evenly balanced sides, we cannot promise that you will be assigned to represent your preferred side. You will not be allowed to drop this class after submitting your signed side preference sheet. Note that this sheet is due on December 19, 2011 to mcbaine.competition@gmail.com. We enforce this strict “no-drop” policy because we must assign opponents and recruit judges based on a set and consistent number of students.

 HONOR CODE VIOLATION NOTICE *****

The McBaine Honors Moot Court competition is governed by both the Competition Rules and the law school’s Honor Code, both of which you agree to abide by. You agree not to read any of the briefs written by the parties or amici in this year’s case or any part of any cases or briefs in which any of the parties have raised substantially the same claim(s) as in this year’s case. You further agree not to engage in any behavior that would confer upon you or anyone else any unfair advantage in the competition. If you have any questions as to this notice and any of the rules applicable to the competition, contact Bill Fernholz.
