Managing for a Healthy
California Current Ecosystem

April 28 & 29, 2008

University of California, Berkeley
Boalt Hall School of Law

GOALS

Understand the challenges and identify successful approaches to: (1) integrating ocean and coastal management decisions across sectors and jurisdictions in the California Current; (2) preventing cumulative impacts; and (3) making the tradeoffs necessary in order to achieve conservation and sustainability of ocean and coastal resources.

OUTCOMES

• Summary documenting key challenges and successful approaches for integrated management approaches to water quality, living resources, and ocean industries management in the California Current.

• Incorporation of key concepts and lessons learned into the Environmental Law Institute’s Ecosystem-Based Management: Obstacles and Opportunities Handbook

The organizers are grateful to the David and Lucile Packard Foundation, the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation, the University of California Marine Council, and to the Office of the Dean, Boalt Hall School of Law, for their generous support; and to the California Center Environmental Law and Policy, Boalt Hall School of Law, UC Berkeley, as a cooperating organizer.
