SUSAN HERMAN

PARALLEL JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME

Room 134, Boalt Hall

12:45 PM TO 2:00 PM

- How do we know when justice has been served for a victim of a crime?
- Does society's obligation to victims extend beyond the criminal justice process?

Susan Herman will lead a discussion on the concept of Parallel Justice - a new framework for responding to crime through two paths to justice, one for victims and one for offenders. Following the Parallel Justice framework, there would always be a separate set of responses for victims of crime that are independent of whether an offender is ever identified or convicted.

Susan Herman is an associate professor at Pace University and author of the book Parallel Justice for Victims of Crime.

Lunch served at 12:45 PM
