

BERKELEY INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH LAW AND ISRAEL STUDIES

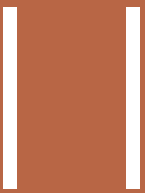

A hub for student, faculty, and community engagement at the University of California, Berkeley

Please join us for a lecture by Yossi Klein Halevi, whose latest book won the top prize in the 2013 National Jewish Book Awards.

LIKE DREAMERS: WHAT I LEARNED ABOUT ISRAEL'S LEFT-RIGHT DIVIDE

WEDNESDAY

MAR

Yossi Klein Halevi

- JOURNALIST AND AUTHOR
- SENIOR FELLOW, SHALOM HARTMAN INSTITUTE
- CONTRIBUTING EDITOR, THE NEW REPUBLIC
- CHAIRMAN OF OPEN HOUSE

Klein Halevi is an award-winning author, respected commentator on Israel and the Middle East, and journalist for leading American publications, including the New York Times and Wall Street Journal.

STUDENTS: Join us for dessert and an intimate student conversation with Yossi Klein Halevi after the talk at 7:30 PM at Berkeley Hillel Chapel. RSVP to Maya at mshemtov@law.berkeley.edu

RECEPTION 5:00 pm | Warren Room, 295 Boalt Hall, UC Berkeley

LECTURE 5:30 pm | 105 Boalt Hall, UC Berkeley

RSVP Please RSVP to berkeley_institute@law.berkeley.edu

Klein Halevi's visit is made possible by the generous funding of the Koret Foundation to the Shalom Hartman Institute of North America's Bay Area Jewish Peoplehood Project.

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Berkeley Institute for
Jewish Law and Israel Studies

