

The Berkeley Institute for Jewish Law and Israel Studies Presents:

Thursday,
February 26th
7:30 PM

Warren Room, 295 Boalt Hall

Dinner will be provided
Doors open at 7:30 PM, Screening at 8 PM

The Berkeley Institute for Jewish Law and Israel Studies invites you to a free screening of the 2014 Best Narrative Feature at the Tribeca Film Festival, Israeli film “Zero Motivation.” The film is a dark comedy which follows the daily lives of several women serving their army time in the HR department. After the film will be a discussion led by Professor Shira Offer.

You must be a student to attend this event, and Cal IDs will be required for entrance.
Please RSVP to berkeley_institute@law.berkeley.edu.

This event is co-sponsored by Mishelanu, the Jewish Student Union, and Miriam the IV: JFem

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Berkeley Institute for Jewish Law and Israel Studies

IAC משלנו
MISHELANU 