

The Berkeley Center for Law, Business and the Economy

BCLBE

Women in Business and Law Speaker Series

Monday, February 23
Boalt Hall 132
12:45 – 1:45 pm

Register Now!

Lunch provided on a first-come, first-served basis

Questions:
bclbe@law.berkeley.edu

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Berkeley Center for Law,
Business and the Economy

A Conversation With

Doreen E. Lilienfeld
Shearman & Sterling LLP

Amy S. Park
Skadden, Arps, Slate,
Meagher & Flom LLP

While women have equal or greater representation than men in law school, their ranks thin at the level of large law firms, especially among partners and management. Skadden and Shearman are among the leading firms developing programs to recruit, train, retain and promote women attorneys. Two of their partners will discuss their firms' efforts in this arena as well as highlight their own experiences moving up the ladder.

Doreen Lilienfeld practices in compensation and benefits issues areas relating to private equity and other M&A transactions. She received her J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in 1993.

Amy Park's practice focuses on high-stakes commercial disputes in federal and state courts, including complex contract disputes, M&A litigation, and securities and other class action suits. She received her J.D. from the Seton Hall University School of Law in 1996.