

Dr. James Luo

Managing Partner
Lawjay Partners

Tel : 010 5933 5588

Fax : 010 5933 5501

Email : james.luo@lawjay.com.cn

Dr. James Luo is the Managing Partner of Lawjay Partners. In 2012, Lawjay Partners was shortlisted by Chambers & Partners for “Boutique PRC Law Firm of the Year”.

James has been handling cases relating to trademark, copyright, unfair competition etc. since 1991. He is recognized by Who’s Who Legal, World Trademark Review and Chambers & Partners as one of the leading IP lawyers in China. In 2011 and 2012 respectively, James represented various international clients in more than 100 IP civil lawsuits for trademark and copyright infringement.

Comments made about James Luo and his firm by his peers and the major legal publications include:

The “commercial, responsive and professional” “James Luo is well-known for his work in IP litigation and his experience of working with international brands. Clients appreciate his “constructive advice and sound knowledge of the law.” “The firm’s advice is very helpful and practical.”

James Luo is Chair of Trademark Committee of Beijing Bar Association, LLM Supervisor at Renmin University of China School of Law, and Arbitrator at Chinese European Arbitration Center and Beijing Arbitration Commission.

James Luo was a former IP Partner Equivalent at Bird & Bird. Before joining Bird & Bird, he was an IP director for North Asia at Motorola China. He also had six-and-a-half years of IP experience at Baker & McKenzie. He used to be Chair of China Sub-Committee of INTA's Anti-Counterfeiting Committee, Vice Chair of QBPC.

James Luo received his PhD in IP at Renmin University of China, an LLM degree in IP at King's College London, and his LLB in IP in 1991. He was a visiting scholar to the University of London and a visiting researcher at Franklin Pierce Law Center.

He is a frequent speaker at international conferences.