

ANDREW J. CARSWELL
Delegate to the Armed Forces
International Committee of the Red Cross

Based in Washington DC, Andrew Carswell currently serves as delegate to the US and Canadian Armed Forces for the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).

ICRC

He holds a Master's degree in international humanitarian law from the University of Geneva and the Graduate Institute of International Studies. Since 2006, he has been employed by the ICRC as advisor for its Unit for Relations with Arms Carriers in Geneva, and as Regional Delegate to the Armed Forces of Southern Africa and the Indian Ocean in Pretoria. Prior to joining ICRC, he served as a legal officer in the Canadian Forces Office of the Judge Advocate General, specializing in military prosecutions as well as operational and international law.