

Diane Amann

Andrea Bjorklund

Richard Buxbaum

Tino Cuellar

Allison Danner

Bill Dodge

Laurel Fletcher

Francis Gavin

Tom Ginsburg

Andrew Guzman

Larry Helfer

Julian Ku

Richard McAdams

Ralf Michaels

Madeleine Morris

Jide Nzelibe

Joel Paul

Richard Steinberg

Margaret Stock

Ed Swaine

Alan Sykes

Carlos Vasquez

Tim Wu

John Yoo

University of California, Los Angeles

University of California, Davis

University of California, Berkeley

Stanford University

Vanderbilt University

University of California, Hastings

University of California, Berkeley

University of Texas, Austin

University of Illinois College of Law

University of California, Berkeley

Vanderbilt University

Hofstra University

University of Illinois College of Law

Duke University

Duke University

Northwestern University

University of California, Hastings

University of California, Los Angeles

West Point

University of Pennsylvania

University of Chicago

Georgetown University

University of Virginia

University of California, Berkeley

Boalt Hall International Legal Scholarship Roundtable

*January 3-4, 2005
Berkeley, California*

*Organized by Professor Andrew Guzman
And
Professor John Yoo*

Monday, January 3, 2005

8:30-9:00	Breakfast
9:00-9:45	Richard H. Steinberg The Formation and Transformation of Trading States: Liberalization and State Institutional Change Since 1947
9:45-10:30	Alan O. Sykes Public vs. Private Enforcement of International Economic Law: Of Standing and Remedy
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-11:30	Andrew Guzman Power Plays & Capacity Constraints: The Selection of Defendants in WTO Disputes
11:30-12:15	Julian Ku International Delegation and the New World Order
12:15-1:45	Lunch at the International House
1:45-2:30	Laurence R. Helfer Why States Create International Tribunals: A Theory of Constrained Independence
2:30-3:15	Tom Ginsburg International Judicial Lawmaking
3:15-3:30	Break
3:30-4:15	Tim Wu TBA

Tuesday, January 4, 2005

8:30-9:00	Breakfast
9:00-9:45	Jide Nzelibe A Positive Theory of the War Powers Constitution
9:45-10:30	Ed Swaine Reserving
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-11:30	Andrea Bjorklund TBA
11:30-12:15	John Yoo Foreign Competence: Formalism, Functionalism, and the Alien Tort Statute

