Members of the Re-inventing California's Civil Commitment Law Workshop Invite You to A Talk:

Paul R. Linde, M.D.
Clinical Professor of Psychiatry,
School of Medicine
University of California, San Francisco

DANGER TO SELF:
ON THE FRONT LINE
WITH AN ER PSYCHIATRIST

Dr. Linde will discuss many of the front-line issues about the marginalization and criminalization of persons with mental health diagnoses by our current mental health system.

Dr. Linde is author of Danger to Self: On the Front Line with an ER Psychiatrist, a first-person account of his experience as a psychiatrist in the emergency department of San Francisco General Hospital. He is a clinical professor of psychiatry at the UCSF School of Medicine and has worked in many high-intensity psychiatric settings over the years. His first book, Of Spirits and Madness: An American Psychiatrist in Africa, was published by McGraw-Hill in 2002.
