

NOTICE REGARDING ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE AT THE FIRST CLASS

Depositions (Law 246.3)

The first meeting of the class for Fall 2019 is on Tuesday, August 20, 2019, starting at 3:35 p.m., in Berkeley Law Room 115.

As announced in the course description found in the Schedule of Classes, enrollment is limited to 18 students. All interested students—whether or not enrolled or placed on the wait list by CalCentral—must attend the first class in order to be admitted. If you were unable either to be enrolled or placed on the wait list by CalCentral, you should still attend the first class to see whether there is a place for you in the class. Any student who does not attend the first class without prior permission of the instructor will be dropped.

Due to the use of simulation exercises throughout the semester and the need to determine the members of the class as soon as possible, the usual provisions of "Drop/Add" do not apply. If you wish to enroll, you must commit to remain in the course by no later than Friday afternoon, August 23, 2019, the last day of the first full week of fall semester classes.

There is no assigned reading for the first class.
