

Regulating Sex and Sexuality
Law 235.6
Professor Murray

The first class meeting will be on Tuesday, August 26, 2014 from 3:35-6:15 pm in Room 107 (please note the room change). There is no textbook for this course. All of the weekly reading assignments will be posted on Bcourses. For the first class meeting, please read the following materials:

- United States v. Windsor
- How Many Sexual Partners Do We Have?
- Brenda Cossman, “Consensual Sex and the Practices of Citizenship,” in SEXUAL CITIZENS: THE LEGAL AND CULTURAL REGULATION OF SEX AND BELONGING

The first reading assignment is available electronically on Bcourses. A limited number of hardcopy reading packets are available from Hailey Anderson in Room 325.

Please complete the assigned reading for the first class meeting. If you are enrolled in the class, you must be present at the first class meeting. Anyone who is absent will be dropped from the class to accommodate waitlisted students. If you are on the waitlist and still interested in taking the course, please attend the first class meeting.

I am looking forward to meeting you! Welcome back!

Best,

MM
