

BERKELEY INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH LAW AND ISRAEL STUDIES

A hub for student, faculty, and community engagement at the University of California, Berkeley

UPCOMING PUBLIC PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY

NOV 30

IS ISRAEL STUCK FOREVER WITH ITS POLITICAL FAULT LINES? A PROJECT TO REORIENT THE LEFT-RIGHT CHASM

Eilon Schwartz, the founder and director of Shaharit, and Nissim Mizrachi, a sociology professor and former chair of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Tel Aviv University, will share with us their story of a unique collaboration between academia and civil society for the purpose of creating a new political space in Israel: beyond “left” and “right.”

TIME Reception: 5:30 pm / Lecture: 6:00 pm

PLACE Warren Room, 295 Boalt Hall, Berkeley Law

To ensure a seat, please RSVP to berkeley_institute@law.berkeley.edu

moderator

CLAUDE FISCHER

Professor, the Graduate School of Sociology

University of California, Berkeley

NISSIM MIZRACHI

Professor, Department of Sociology and Anthropology

Tel Aviv University

EILON SCHWARTZ

Founder and Director

Shaharit, a think tank in Israel focused on politics of the common good

These programs are made possible by the generosity of individual donors and foundations. For more information about how you can partner with the Institute, or to learn more about our programs, visit <https://www.law.berkeley.edu/centers/berkeley-institute-for-jewish-law-and-israel-studies/>