

BERKELEY INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH LAW AND ISRAEL STUDIES

A hub for student, faculty, and community engagement at the University of California, Berkeley

BUILDING THE SOLAR REVOLUTION IN FRONTIER ECONOMIES: SUPPORTING SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN ISRAEL AND AFRICA

Yosef Abramowitz, President and CEO of Energiya Global Capital, Co-founder of the Arava Power Company

March 8th, 2016 | 5:30 PM Reception, 6 PM Lecture | Blum Center, Plaza

Yosef Abramowitz is the Co-founder of the Arava Power Company and now serves as CEO and President of Energiya Global. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Jewish Public Policy from Boston University, and a Master of Arts in Magazine Journalism from Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism in 1991. Mr. Abramowitz became a major social and environmental entrepreneur and was named one of the top six Green Pioneers worldwide by CNN. He will join us for a talk on Israel's "solar revolution" and discuss questions of sustainable development.

RSVP HERE

Or email us at berkeley\_institute@law.berkeley.edu

Berkeley Institute for Jewish Law and Israel Studies