

Liu Ping

Born on November, 1968 in Beijing.

Deputy Director-General and Legal Counsel of Music Copyright Society of China (MCSC)

Education:

Master of Laws (LLM) in Civil and Commercial Law (Renmin University of China)

Qualification:

Admitted to the Chinese Bar Association in 1994

Working Experience:

1995-2000

2000-2006

Jan 2006-Now

Attorney of China Legal Center, a law office subordinated directly to the Department of Justice Partner Attorney of Beijing Tenwell Law Firm; Beijing Dejun Law Firm

Deputy Director - General and Legal Counsel of Music Copyright Society of China

Professional Experience:

Mr.Liu 's practice scope reached various areas of civil and commercial law since being admitted to practice, especially in the area of intellectual property. He has represented clients in a large amount of litigation of intellectual property cases, and possessed rich practical experience in this area. Cases include those which are prospective and creative, such as the case which firstly established the right of presentitaion of Music Video(MV) works.

Upon joining MCSC, He has devoted to the development of the copyright collective management in China and has reached outstanding achievements. He has lead MCSC to win the litigation against Baidu who illegally provided music online, which is the very first case in mainland China. Furthermore, He has a professional in Chinese intellectual property law, and as an expert in law practice, He has consulted Chinese legislative and judicial administrations in the area of intellectual property.