

Government Environmental Law Careers: State & Local

When:
Monday
Nov. 9, 2015
12:45-1:45pm

Where:
UC Berkeley
School of Law
Room 130

With a near-paralyzed and environmentally hostile Congress, contemporary environmental progress is largely state and local, with California and its subdivisions far in the lead.

Join us to learn about the variety of environmental career paths in California's program and enforcement agencies . . . and their innovative strategies for cooling the planet, preventing toxics exposures, and cleaning up legacy pollutants.

Featuring:

- Danny Chou, Assistant County Counsel, Santa Clara County
- Margarita Padilla, Supervising Deputy Attorney General, CA Attorney General's Office
- Colleen Heck, Senior Staff Counsel, Department of Toxic Substances Control (former) & Chief Counsel, Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (former)
- Claudia Polsky, Director, UC Berkeley Environmental Law Clinic (moderator)

CO-HOSTED BY THE CENTER FOR LAW, ENERGY & THE ENVIRONMENT (CLEE), ENVIRONMENTAL LAW CLINIC, & ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION (APALSA)
