The Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors imposed a moratorium on juvenile administrative, electronic monitoring, and legal service fees earlier this month, and Alameda County this week voted to make permanent a moratorium on the fees, making it the first county in the state to do so ... (Even though) SB 941, a measure authored by Senator Holly J. Mitchell, D-Los Angeles, that seeks to repeal the fees statewide, has stalled, the Policy Advocacy Clinic remains committed to working for an end to the fees across California.
