1. Cafe Zeb
   Grab a bite at our cafe. It is open to the public and a great place to stop by in between classes.

2. Small Classrooms
   Take a peek at some of our study rooms and small classrooms.

3. Library
   Our library is downstairs. There are so many places to study here!

4. Commons
   This a great place to hang out and/or study with friends.

5. Lecture Halls
   Walk across the West Courtyard and through the double doors to check out our three lecture halls.

6. Student Center
   Downstairs, the Student Center is home to Berkeley Law’s thirteen law journals and student organization offices. Walk upstairs to the second floor to continue the tour.
7. ADP Office - 214 Boalt Hall
   Stop by the Advanced Degree Programs Office, which administers LL.M. and J.S.D. programs. The staff here help students with academic advising, student support, professional development, and much more!

8. Main Reading Room
   A great, quiet place to study.

9. Rooftop Terrace
   Enjoy a view of the Bay Area. Can you spot the Golden Gate Bridge?

10. Registrar’s Office
    The Registrar’s Office keeps track of academic transcripts and other official documents.

11. Bookstore
    Berkeley Law has its own bookstore. Take a look around!

Student Services
Student Services works with various student organizations and provides student support.
