Berkeley Law | 295 Boalt Hall (Warren Room)

- 8:30 AM Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 AM Introductions: All 24 participants will introduce themselves, with a strictly enforced absolute limit of 5 minutes each. We ask that each person follow the following script:
- My name is _____
 - I am a _____ at _____
 - In my work, I engage the issue of sexual harassment as follows:
_____.
 - The most important insight I've had from the Global #MeToo Movement is: _____.
- 11:00 AM Coffee and informal discussion. This is your first chance to follow up with a few of the people you've just heard introduced, regarding their work and/or insights. Your tent card will be moved to your table and seat assignment for the following session.
- 11:30 AM Twenty-minute address by Catharine MacKinnon on the Global #MeToo Movement, followed by forty minutes of discussion at each of four pre-assigned tables of 6 people each.

- 12:30 PM Lunch, at tables of 6, but with different table assignments than at 11:30. Please see the back of your name tag for your table number. Our luncheon speaker, Kimberlé Crenshaw, will speak for twenty minutes, followed by informal discussion at your table.
- 1:30 PM A chance to take a brief walk on the Berkeley campus, joining with a few people who you want to talk with based on the introductions, the table discussions, or your prior knowledge of their work.
- 2:00 PM A preview of our first session from Day 2, with 6 five-minute presentations on the #MeToo Movement around the world. Reports will include Australia (Natasha DeSilva), China (Lining Zhang), France (Marie Mercat-Bruns), India (Shreya Atrey), Italy (Costanza Hermanin) and the US. (Jessica Clarke). Followed by an open discussion with comments and questions from any and all participants.
- 3:30 PM A presentation on logistics for Day 2, when we will be joined by approximately 25 California lawyers attending the program for Continuing Legal Education credit.
- 3:45 PM Coffee and informal discussion. Your tent card will be moved to your table and seat assignment for the following session.
- 4:15 PM Thirty minute presentation on the problems with organizations' anti-harassment policies, procedures and programs by Lauren Edelman (author of Working Law: Courts, Corporations, and Symbolic Civil Rights), followed by twenty minutes of open discussion, followed by forty-minutes discussion at each of four new pre-assigned tables of 6 people each. See your assignment sheet for your new table number.
- 5:45 PM A brief update from Purna Sen, Executive Coordinator & Spokesperson on Sexual Harassment and Discrimination, United Nations Women.
- 6:00 PM Another chance to take a walk on the Berkeley campus, joining with a few people who you want to talk with based on the introductions, the table discussions, or your prior knowledge of their work, or to rest.
- 7:00 PM Cocktails, followed by dinner, at the Women's Faculty Club. Dinner will be open seating.
