

The Center for the Study of Law and Society announces its annual lecture series:

THE ROBERT A. KAGAN LECTURE IN LAW AND REGULATION

5TH ANNUAL LECTURE

THE POLITICS OF REGULATORY ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE

JODI SHORT, THE HONORABLE ROGER J. TRAYNOR PROFESSOR OF LAW, U.C. HASTINGS COLLEGE OF LAW

In light of broad consensus that “politics matters” in regulatory enforcement and compliance, this lecture examines how the construct of ‘politics’ has been conceptualized in regulatory theory and analyzes how it has been operationalized in empirical studies of regulatory enforcement and compliance outcome. The goal is to sharpen theoretical and empirical understandings of when and how regulation works by better accounting for the role politics plays in its enforcement.

INTRODUCED BY

JONATHAN SIMON, LANCE ROBBINS PROFESSOR OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE LAW, BERKELEY LAW AND DIRECTOR, CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF LAW AND SOCIETY

COMMENTS BY

SALO V. COSLOVSKY, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF URBAN PLANNING & PUBLIC SERVICE, ROBERT F. WAGNER GRADUATE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC SERVICE, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

NEIL D. FLIGSTEIN, CLASS OF 1939 CHANCELLOR’S PROFESSOR, DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA BERKELEY

BerkeleyLaw
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Center for the Study of Law & Society

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 2019, 3:30 - 5:15PM
GOLDBERG ROOM, BERKELEY LAW

reception to follow