

KADISH CENTER WORKSHOP IN LAW, PHILOSOPHY, AND POLITICAL THEORY

Date	Speaker	Paper Title
Jan. 24th	Gina Schouten, Philosophy, Harvard University	Justice: Verdictive or Aspirational? Democratic Egalitarianism as Liberal Legitimacy
Jan. 31st	Katharina Pistor, Law, Columbia University	Statehood in the Digital Age
Feb. 7th	Aziz Rana, Law, Cornell University	Rise of the Constitution
Feb. 14th	Isabelle Ferreras, Sociology, University of Louvain	Firms are Political Entities: Consequences for Democratic Theory
Feb. 21st	Stefan Eich, Political Science, Georgetown University	The Currency of Politics: Money in Modern Political Thought
Feb. 28th	Steven Vogel, Political Science, UC Berkeley	The Regulatory Roots of Inequality in America
Mar. 6th	David Grewal, Law, UC Berkeley	The Commercial Oeconomy
Mar 20th	Sophia Moreau, Law & Philosophy, Toronto University POSTPONED until Fall 2020	The Duty to Treat Others as Equals: Who Stands Under It POSTPONED until Fall 2020
Apr. 3rd	Lucas Stanczyk, Philosophy, Harvard University	Political Economy and the Climate Crisis
Apr. 10th	Enrico Moretti, Economics, UC Berkeley	Wage Equalization and Regional Misallocation: Evidence from Italian and German Provinces
Apr. 17th	Michael Albertus, Political Science, University of Chicago	Property Rights Gaps
Apr. 24th	Amy Kapczynski, Law, Yale University	Building A Law and Political Economy Framework: Beyond the Twentieth-Century Synthesis