WIP Participants List

You can now log in to b-Line and see both the employers that have thus far signed up for WIP as well as those that registered for WIP Resume Collect. Just click on "OCI" from the left sidebar menu. To see WIP employers, select "2021 WIP" as the Session. To see Resume Collect employers, select "2021 WIP Resume Collect" as the Session. We will also be replacing last year's EIW participants lists with this year's WIP participants lists in the Documents Library section of b-Line (under Resources) next week.

Although most PIPS-type employers hire directly, or participated in FIP and/or will participate in later PIPS career fairs, 3 employers have registered for WIP that might potentially be of interest to 2Ls looking for PIPS-type positions: Robbins Geller, a plaintiff's side firm, the Government Accountability Office, an independent, nonpartisan "watchdog" agency that works for Congress (and that has made postgraduate offers to its 2L summer interns), and Edelson, which is a law firm that, among other things, does plaintiff's side privacy-related work.

Update Your b-Line Profile Email Address

Finally, keep in mind that CDO emails that relate solely to law firm employers will be sent only to those who did not opt out of receiving such announcements and that they will be sent via the b-Line (unlike this email, which was sent via the official school class email list).

To insure that you receive law firm employer announcements, please check and, if necessary, update the email address in your b-Line profile. To opt out of receiving such emails, just let us know via reply email. To find any of our prior emails, visit the CDO Email Archive.
