Hello 1Ls!

For those of you interested in applying for a law firm diversity fellowship, please take a moment to watch our video on 1L Law Firm Diversity Programs, which includes an introduction to these types of programs, the application process and timeline, and some key considerations. The video, as well as the accompanying slides and referenced materials related to preparing your personal statement, are available on the Fall 2020 Resources page.

Then, save the date for the virtual 1L Law Firm Diversity Program Fair on November 17th, from 6-8pm, which we are co-sponsoring with the Womxn of Color Collective (WOCC). This event will give you the opportunity to speak directly with diversity and inclusion professionals, attorneys and recruiters from various firms about their diversity fellowships. Keep an eye out for more details in the next few weeks.

Students who have shown a commitment to diversity and inclusion, can describe how they can contribute to the diversity of the legal profession, or who are members of underrepresented populations in the legal profession are welcome to participate.

Make sure to check the Diversity Opportunities webpage for announcements related to summer diversity programs. For any questions related to your 1L summer job search, please feel free to schedule an appointment via b-line with one of the CDO counselors.
