

Irene Liu

Irene Liu is the Chief Legal Officer of Hopin, an online virtual events platform where you can create virtual events to connect people around the globe. She is also a regular speaker on topics ranging from government engagement strategies and risk management to AI, data privacy, and diversity. She is a frequent writer and contributor to the Thomson Reuters Legal Executive Institute and writes a blog series on “Using Your Platform for Good.”

Prior to going in-house, Irene worked at the U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, and the Federal Trade Commission in the Bureau of Consumer Protection. She gained extensive international policy, privacy, and compliance experience while overseeing BlackBerry’s global law enforcement compliance team and at Lookout, an enterprise mobile security company. Prior to Hopin, Irene was the SVP & General Counsel of Checkr, a provider of modern background checks, where she oversaw legal, compliance, policy, and customer education teams.

Irene received her J.D. from UC Berkeley School of Law and her B.A. from Mount Holyoke College.