

Adv. Hilda Stuart Dadu

Hilda is an advocate of the High Court of Tanzania and Human Rights Activist with 10 + experiences in gender equality, women and children's rights expertise specialized in Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights. She is an alumnae fellow of Leadership and Advocacy for Women of Africa (LAWA) program. She has researched on Access to Justice for Sex Workers in Tanzania as national consultant of NSWP. She wrote a research paper on Gone too soon: Child pregnancies consequences for high rate of maternal Mortalities in Tanzania as an LL.M paper in Law graduate at O'Neil Institute for Public and Global Health Laws of Georgetown University Laws Center, Washington DC. She also researched on Incidences of Violence against Women in the 2015 Tanzania general election. She is championing in ending Sexual Gender based Violence related to sexual harassments at schools, higher learning Institutes and at workplaces in Tanzania. She is a trainer for the issues of sexual corruption (Sextortion) and sexual harassment. Hilda is a founder and coordinator of Coalition of Women Human Rights Defenders Tanzania. Hilda is an Executive Director of Prosperous Health Life Initiative - a Women's rights organization leading on sexual and reproductive health and Rights in Tanzania.