I know you are planning to email the Judge. He just sent the below. Let me know how you want to proceed.

Thank you,

(b)(6); (b)(7)(C) I got the message that you and (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) called to discuss the attorney-client email situation. Needless to say, I'm disappointed, especially in light of how long we've been at this and the assurances I'd received about how things have been moving forward. I gather (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) no longer wants to come to tomorrow's meeting, which probably makes sense given the tough questions (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) could reasonably expect from the understandably frustrated representatives of defense counsel organizations. I suppose my next step is to call folks in Washington, at the BOP and DOJ, since the regional approach hasn't worked.

Let me know if I'm missing something.
