

North Carolina Journal of Law & Technology Publishing Agreement

This is a publication agreement and copyright license (“Agreement”) regarding a written manuscript currently entitled, Innovation Warfare, (“Article”) to be published in the North Carolina Journal of Law & Technology (“Journal”).

The parties to this Agreement are: Jeanne Suchodolski, Suzanne Harrison, and Bowman Heiden (individually or, if more than one author, collectively, “Author”), and the North Carolina Journal of Law & Technology (“Publisher”).

(1) LICENSE OF COPYRIGHT

(a) Public License. The Author and the Publisher agree that the Author may grant a Creative Commons copyright license in the Article to the general public. The Publisher has indicated which Creative Commons licenses the Publisher is willing to allow the Author to grant by checking and initialing the appropriate boxes in the “Publisher” column in the table below. The Author must check one and only one box below and write Author’s initials in the adjacent space to indicate which, if any, Creative Commons License the Author grants. A summary of the differences between the licenses is available at <http://creativecommons.org/about/licenses/meet-the-licenses>.

(b) Publisher License. If not already granted in paragraph (1)(a) of this Agreement, the Author grants to the Publisher a royalty-free, worldwide nonexclusive license to publish, reproduce, display, distribute, and use the Article in any form, by means of any and all media now known or later developed, either separately or as part of a collective work, including but not limited to a nonexclusive license to publish the Article in an issue of the Journal, copy and distribute individual reprints of the Article, authorize reproduction of the entire Article in another publication, and authorize reproduction and distribution of the Article and/or an abstract thereof by means of computerized retrieval systems (including, but not limited to, Westlaw, Lexis-Nexis and HEIN). The Author retains ownership of all rights under copyright in the Article, and all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement.

(c) Assignment and Sub-Licensing. The Author grants to the Publisher the power to assign, sublicense or otherwise transfer any and all licenses expressly granted to the Publisher under this Agreement.

(d) Republication. The Author agrees to require that the Publisher be given credit as the original publisher in any republication of the Article authorized by the Author, stated as follows: “Republished with permission of the North Carolina Journal of Law & Technology (www.ncjolt.org).” If the Publisher authorizes any other party to republish the Article under the terms of paragraphs (1)(b) and (1)(c) of this Agreement, the Publisher shall require such party to ensure that the Author is credited as the Author.

(2) EDITING OF THE ARTICLE

(a). The Author agrees that the Publisher may edit the Article as suitable for publication in the Journal. To the extent that the Publisher’s edits amount to copyrightable works of authorship, the Publisher hereby assigns all right, title, and interest in such edits to the Author. The Publisher agrees to publish the Article subject to the understanding that the Article will not be published in the Journal unless, in its final form, the Article is acceptable to both the Author and the Publisher.

(b). The Author agrees to submit revisions or corrections to the Publisher in accordance with the Journal’s publication schedule.

(3) PUBLISHER’S COVENANT

(a). The Publisher promises to send to the Author, within a reasonable time after the Article has been published, an electronic copy of the published version of the Article if the Publisher has such a copy within its possession, custody or control at or about the time of publication, and as part of the Publisher’s normal publishing operations.

(b). If the Publisher is unable to send to the Author an electronic copy of the Article under the terms of paragraph (3)(a) of this Agreement, the Publisher promises to send to the Author a copy of the final electronic file supplied by the Publisher to Publisher’s printer within a reasonable time after the Article has been published.

(4) WARRANTIES

(a). The Author represents and warrants that to the best of the Author’s knowledge the Article does not defame any person, does not invade the privacy of any person, and does not in any other manner infringe upon the rights of any person. The Author agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Publisher against all such claims.

(b). The Author represents and warrants that the Article is the original work of the Author, and that the Author has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and grant the licenses granted in this Agreement.

(c). The Author represents and warrants that the Article furnished to the Publisher has not been published previously. For purposes of this paragraph, making a copy of the Article accessible over the Internet, including, but not limited to, posting the Article to a database accessible over the Internet, does not constitute prior publication so long as such copy indicates that the Article is not in final form, such as by designating such copy to be a “draft,” a “working paper,” or “work-in-progress.” The Author agrees to hold harmless the Publisher, its licensees and distributees, from any claim, action, or proceeding alleging facts that constitute a breach of any warranty enumerated in this paragraph.

(d). If the Article reproduces any textual or graphic material that is the property of another author for which permission is required, the Author shall obtain written consent to such reproduction.

(5) LITIGATION

(a). If a claim is asserted against the Publisher as a result of the Author’s alleged breach of the agreement or the warranties therein, the Author shall be notified promptly. The Author shall have the right to participate in the Publisher’s response against such claim, and the Publisher shall not settle the claim without the Author's approval. If a settlement requires the Publisher to make a money payment or a money judgment is rendered against the Publisher, the Author shall reimburse the Publisher for the amount of such payment or judgment, and shall pay the cost and expenses reasonably incurred by the Publisher in defending against the claim.

(b). The Publisher shall have the power, after giving notice to the Author, to initiate legal proceedings against any persons or entities believed to be infringing the rights granted by the Author to the Publisher. The Author agrees to cooperate reasonably in the institution and maintenance of such proceedings. Damages recovered in such proceedings shall be applied first toward the Publisher's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings, and the balance shall be divided equally between the Author and Publisher.

(6) TERM

(a). This Agreement shall remain in effect for as long as copyright protection subsists in the Article.

(7) PAYMENT

(a). The Author agrees and acknowledges that the Author will receive no payment from the Publisher for use of the Article or the licenses granted in this Agreement. The Publisher will publish the Article and will provide the Author with one (1) free copy of the bound issue in which the Article appears. The Author will have the opportunity to order additional reprints at the Author's expense before the issue containing the Article goes to press.

(b). The Publisher agrees and acknowledges that the Publisher will not receive any payment from the Author for publication by the Publisher.

(8) ENTIRE AGREEMENT

(a). This Agreement supersedes any and all other agreements, either oral or in writing, between the Author and the Publisher with respect to the subject of this Agreement. This Agreement contains all of the warranties and agreements between the parties with respect to the Article, and each party acknowledges that no representations, inducements, promises, or agreements have been made by or on behalf of any party except those warranties and agreements embodied in this Agreement.

I HAVE READ AND AGREE FULLY WITH THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT.
