

Hispanic Bar Association of Orange County 2023 Bar Stipend Application Form

The Program

This fund is sponsored by the O. C. Hispanic Bar Association and awards stipends to law students with strong Latinx ties and strong connections to Orange County. Recipients are honored and expected to be present at our annual gala to be held next year.

Eligibility

Eligible bar takers must be 3-L law students or registrants of the February 2023 California Bar Exam and of Latino origin and involved in the Latino community. Priority will be given to bar takers with significant ties to Orange County. Stipends are open to bar takers regardless of immigration status. The OCHBA requests your authorization to print and display portions of your personal statement and picture in our program and at our Gala for the purpose of raising scholarship and stipend funds for future years.

Available Scholarship

A maximum of one – three (1-3) stipend awards will be given and a maximum of $3,000.00 will be distributed among the scholarship winners.

Application Requirements

To be considered for an award, you must:

- Complete and sign the 3-page application
- Include personal statement as specified in the application
- Attach a resume (include relevant community involvement and legal work)
- Proof/receipt of registration for the February 2023 California Bar Exam
- Letter(s) of recommendation are optional

All materials must be postmarked by Friday, October 21, 2022. Sign completed form and mail to:
