Graduation - you did it!

June 2023

Law Library Privileges and Software

All library accounts are normally deleted at the end of June. However, if you would like to extend your privileges just email circadmin@law.berkeley.edu and we can extend your library account through August 31, 2023. Your free software licenses for Microsoft software, Adobe software, and Zoom Pro will expire a few weeks following graduation. (You can continue to use Zoom Basic through the grace period described below under CalNet Identity and Access Management).

Mid-August 2023

Computing Privileges

Your CalNet ID will allow library research access until mid-August when Main Campus loads new student accounts. You can access all Campus Databases (other than ones with individual passwords), borrow from other UC libraries and print from your laptop or the lab until that time. VPN access terminates on graduation. For computing questions email studentcomputing@law.berkeley.edu
