

MILLER INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL CHALLENGES AND THE LAW STUDENT-INITIATED SUPPORT APPLICATION

The Miller Institute for Global Challenges and the Law offers financial support to student groups working on international and comparative law events. Please write an event proposal about what your student group would do with the funds and lay out your event’s core details below.

Terms for support grants:

1. Student groups need to inform their faculty advisor(s) about the event before applying.
2. Provide an event description and a clear educational purpose for the use of the grant.
3. Acknowledge “The Miller Institute for Global Challenges and the Law” in publicity or publications that might result from this support.
4. Provide a summary and photos about the event on completion, along with supporting materials.

Submit application and any supporting materials to Toni Mendicino at tmendicino@law.berkeley.edu.

Name of Student Organization
Requested By
Email Address(es)
Event Title
Event Description
Event Start and End Dates
Student Group’s Budget Chartstring ($500/project maximum)
Name of Faculty Advisor(s)
<input type="checkbox"/> We have informed our faculty advisor(s) about this event

Description of Your Group's Proposed Event and the Educational Purpose for the Grant (500 words maximum)