

Miller Fellow: Weifeng Yang

Faculty Sponsor: Professor Katerina Linos

Project: EU and Comparative Antitrust Projects

Weifeng Yang is a JD candidate from the class of 2025. He graduated from Cornell University with a BA in Government and History and a Master of Public Administration (MPA) with a concentration in Human Rights and Social Justice. During his undergraduate studies, Weifeng wrote for Cornell Daily Sun as a columnist, covering issues related to Chinese students in American colleges and human rights issues back home in China. During his MPA studies, he interned at the Human Rights Watch Asia Division, researching relevant HR violations in China. At Berkeley Law, he is excited to explore a variety of practices with a continued interest in the international legal landscape.

Weifeng's Miller Fellowship with Professor Linos involves research on Antitrust law diffusion in the Third World and European Integration issues.
