

F.J.W

Competition for outstanding scholarly work
on trademark, competition,
or antitrust law

The Jerzy Wiszniewski Foundation invites submissions for the first edition of its competition for scholarly works.

About the Foundation

The Jerzy Wiszniewski Foundation was established pursuant to the will of his daughter, Prof. Irena Wiszniewska-Białecka.

The foundation seeks to contribute to the development and spread of the study of competition, trademark and antitrust law in Poland and around the world. These are areas of law vital for economic growth and innovation.

It is also the foundation's aim to commemorate the work and scholarly accomplishments of Prof. Irena Wiszniewska-Białecka and Prof. Jerzy Wiszniewski as distinguished lawyers and important figures in Polish and international jurisprudence.

Prof. Irena Wiszniewska-Białecka was a legal scholar, adwokat, and longtime judge of the Supreme Administrative Court of Poland and the General Court of the CJEU.

Prof. Jerzy Wiszniewski was a legal scholar, longtime academic lecturer, and author of academic textbooks.

Detailed information and the rules for the competition are found at the foundation's website:

→ wyszniwski-foundation.org

Competition entries

Works in any of the following fields may be entered in the competition:

- Trademark law
- Competition law
- Antitrust law.

The work may be a master's thesis, doctoral or post-doctoral dissertation, monograph, or other work of a scholarly nature.

Requirements for submissions:

- Published (or defended) no earlier than 11 April 2019
- Accompanied by at least two written reviews by a person holding a doctorate or more advanced title, or a member of the judiciary or prosecution service
- No less than 100 pages
- Written in English or Polish.

The works admitted to the competition will be judged by the Competition Committee, made up of distinguished members of the Polish and international legal community:

- Prof. Maciej Bernatt
 - Dr Lavinia Brâncuși
 - Prof. Marko Ilešič
 - Prof. Tomasz Koncewicz
 - Prof. Annette Kur
 - Prof. David Llewelyn
 - Prof. Marek Safjan
-

Detailed information and the rules for the competition are found at the foundation's website:

→ wyszniowski-foundation.org

The author(s) of the best work in the competition will be awarded a cash prize of USD 20,000.

Submissions should be addressed to:

→ contact@wyszniowski-foundation.org

The competition is conducted with the organisational support of Wardyński & Partners.