

Miller Fellow: Simone Brown

Faculty Sponsor: Professor Katerina Linos

Project: AJIL Unbound Symposium on NGEU

Simone Browne is a first-year JD student at Berkeley Law. She graduated in 2019 from the University of Chicago, where she specialized in human rights and criminal justice and completed a BA in Public Policy. In 2019-20, Simone taught English as a Fulbright Grantee in Chernivtsi, Ukraine. Before law school, she also spent several years living in Belgium, earning a licentiate certification as a professional carillonist (tower bell-player), and performing carillon recitals in Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Norway, Lithuania, Denmark, the US, and Ukraine.

At Berkeley Law, Simone is involved with the Berkeley Journal of International Law and the International Human Rights Workshop. In her free time, she enjoys playing the bells at Berkeley's Sather Tower, studying languages, exploring new places, and reading.

As a Miller Fellow, Simone is working with Professor Katerina Linos on the "AJIL Unbound Symposium on Next Generation EU" project.
