Jim Dempsey

Jim Dempsey has been a leading expert on privacy and Internet policy for three decades. From January 2015 through May 2021, he was executive director of the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology (BCLT), where he helped maintain Berkeley's #1 rating in IP law. Prior to that, he was at the Center for Democracy & Technology, where he held a number of leadership positions, including Executive Director (2003 to 2005) and head of CDT West (2005 to 2014). Currently, in addition to teaching a course on cybersecurity law in the LLM executive track program at Berkeley, Jim is Senior Policy Advisor to the Program on Geopolitics, Technology, and Governance at the Stanford Cyber Policy Center.
